

Plan to attend the WAM Spring Field Day.

Wetlands, Woodlands and Wildlife.

on May 31, 2008, 9:00 am to 3:00 pm at the James Woodlot in the Boreal Forest near Grand Beach.

This event is open to the general public. No membership is required.

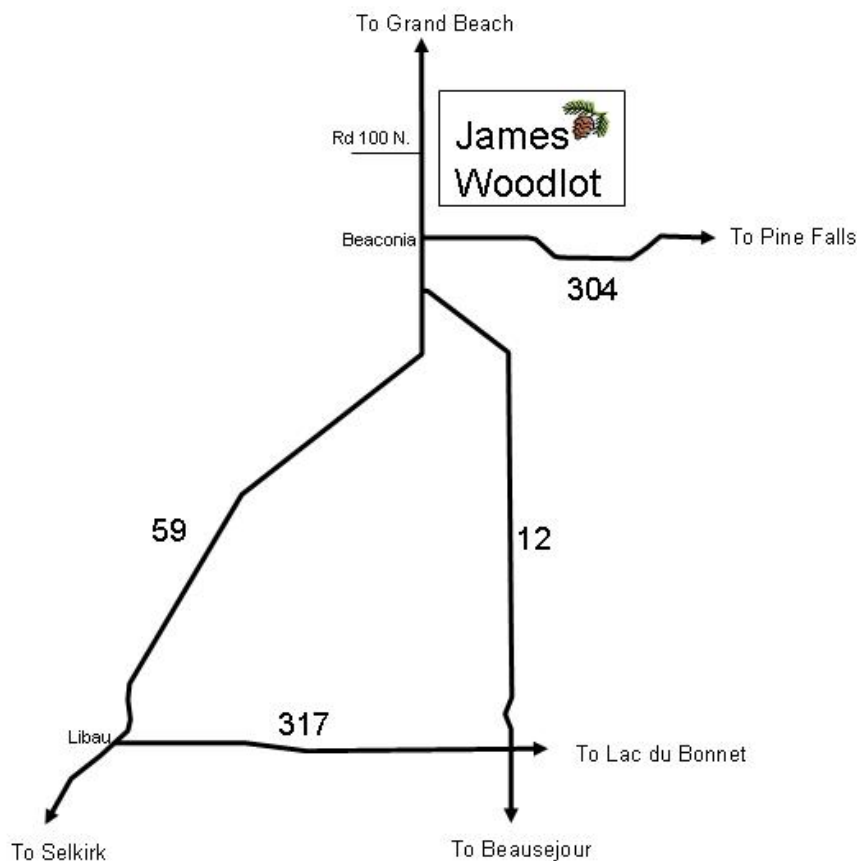

Speakers & Displays (Space is still available for groups who would like to display.)

Demonstrations (Including growing mushrooms in your forest by Ken Fosty & trail making equipment by Ed Medges of Pacer Power Products.)

Tours of the Model Forest Demonstration Trail, including a visit to the bog. Free entertainment.

Participating groups include: Woodlot Association of Manitoba, Manitoba Forestry Association, Manitoba Model Forest, Native Orchid Conservation Inc., Brokenhead Wetland Ecological Reserve, Oak Hammock Marsh, Manitoba Trappers' Association and others.

Admission: $5.00. To Pre-register call (204) 453-7102

Advertising